FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Count I: Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud
18 U.S.C. § 1349, 18 U.S.C. § 1344

JUDGMENT
COMM
ORDER

The court inquires as to whether there is any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered as follows:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons on Count One of the Indictment for a term of twenty-two (22) months. The court recommends that defendant remain housed at Metropolitan Detention Center. The court further recommends that custody time be calculated on an expedited basis.

It is further ordered that defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of two (2) years, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, and from abusing alcohol and prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.

5. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
6. Defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.
7. Defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
8. Defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than defendant's true legal name, nor shall defendant use, any name other than his true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
9. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
10. Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.

It is ordered that defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $46,260.10 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

| Victim | Amount |
|-----------------|---------------|
| Bank of America | $46,260.10 |

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10 percent of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

Defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant Mark Itaev for the full amount of restitution ordered, and with co-defendant Yelena Itaev for $14,832.02 (Docket No. CR- 16-0140).

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

All fines are waived as the court finds defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
